

Curriculum Map: Year 13 Sociology

	Half Term 1 -5 (Ongoing)	Half Term 1	Half Term 2	Half Term 3	Half Term 4	Half Term 5
Topic	Global Development	Crime and Deviance		Theory and Methods		Revision and Exam Skills
Intent	Define measure development and look at variety of theories of development and globalisation.	An examination of the different theories of crime and the social distribution of crime. To examine globalisation and crime in contemporary society and crime control, surveillance, prevention and punishment.		Examine the use of, effectiveness and problems associated with quantitative and qualitative research methods. Analyse and evaluate consensus conflict and social action theories.		Concentration on exam technique, including the ability to read exam questions efficiently under time constraints.
Key Knowledge	Economic ways of measuring development, contrasting with the social ways of measuring development.	Functionalism. Interactionism, Marxism, Realist, gender, ethnicity, media representations of crime and the global impact of crime.		Assess concepts of modernity and post modernity. Assess the extent to which Sociology can be regarded as a science. Debates about subjectivity, objectivity and value freedom. Assess the relationship between Sociology and social policy.		Revision of all Y12 units and successful interpretation of a range of exam questions.
Key Skills	Knowledge and understanding, application and analysis and evaluation of sociologists and their work and studies.	Analysis and application of the relevant sociological studies. Evaluation of the strength and limitations of these studies.		Application, analysis and evaluation of a range of sources, data and perspectives.		Revision, independent learning, exam technique, confidence in ability to select key information in response to exam questions.
Key Vocabulary	Democracy, happiness and wellbeing, exploitation, modernisation, dependency, neoliberal policies, transnational corporations.	Boundary maintenance, hierarchy, deviance amplification, strain theory, corporate crime, underclass, chivalry thesis, patriarchal control, liberation thesis, relative deprivation, green criminology, situational crime prevention.		Quantitative, qualitative, representativeness, validity, reliability, detachment, ideological functions, falsifications, fallacy of induction, paradigm, exploitation, alienation, phenomenology, ethnomethodology.		All key vocabulary from previous units
Key Reading	Sociology for AQA Year 2- Chapter 2. Sociology Collins Student Book Topic 3.	Sociology Book 2 Chapter 2 – Crime and Deviance. Sociology for AQA Year 2-Chapter 6.		Sociology Book 2 Chapter 3 – Theory and Methods Sociology for AQA Year 2-Chapter 5.		A Level Sociology Complete Revision Guide Book 1 and 2. Website-revisesociology .
End Point	Students will be able to analyse, evaluate and apply sociological research and theories to a range of exam questions.	Students will be able to analyse, evaluate and apply relevant sociological research to a range of exam questions.		Students will be able to use their knowledge of theory and methods to apply their knowledge to and answer exam questions.		Students will be able to confidently interpret exam questions and be able to improve exam responses in light of self-reflection.
Form of Assessment	Weekly assessment questions External Exam (Y13) Paper 2- Global Dev and Family	Weekly assessed exam questions. External Exam-Paper 3-Crime and Deviance with Theory and Methods		Weekly assessed exam questions.		3 End of course exams. 2 hours per exam.
Enrichment Opportunities	Trips to Police museum and prison museum. Vising speakers (Police, charities).
Leadership Opportunities	Organise charitable event to support people in the developing world.

